"Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing' (Luke 12:49). He then spoke of division in the family. Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life and he will not compromise or water down who he is. Peace cannot be built on lies. You cannot accept something false, untruthful, just to remain at peace. Yes, we need the Holy Spirit to guide us so that we can bring people the truth and not try to force things down their throats, so to speak, but we cannot abandon The Way, The Truth, and The Life. And we must realize, as well, that we could be the ones in error and we need the Voice of God coming from another. Pope Paul VI said, "If you want peace, work for Justice." The truth is that there is just a lot of unfairness and lack of opportunity for many children born into this world today, while many are born with everything in their favor. Jesus is a man with great passion for whom and what he loves. He does not want half truths; nor half hearted people. In the book of Revelation, John is hearing a vision of what Jesus wants to tell the Christians of his time. There are some that have not really committed to Jesus. John writes Jesus saying: "To the presiding spirit of the church of Laodicea, write this: 'The Amen, the faithful Witness and true, the Source of God's creation, has this to say: I know your deeds; I know you are neither hot nor cold. How I wish you were one or the other – hot or cold!' But because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spew you out of my mouth" (Rev 3:14-16). I have told you this before, but there is a lot of teaching on the website, formed.org. Our parish is already paying for the subscription. Take advantage of it during this "test year." You can find your way to it by following the description in the bulletin. There is a great video called "Catholicism" by Bishop Robert Barron. In the first session he talks about Jesus, who he is, and that he really compels a choice for him or against. Please watch the first session on Catholicism. It really gives insight to the "Division" that Jesus brings.

Vocation Meditations From Pope Saint John Paul II -

"The lack of workers for God's harvest was already a challenge in Gospel times, even for Jesus himself. ...He also teaches us today that with prayer we can and must influence the number of vocations. ...Do not be afraid to go out into the streets and the public places like the first apostles, who preached Christ and the good news of salvation in the squares of the cities, towns and villages. This is no time to be ashamed of the Gospel. It is the time to teach it from the rooftops."

Stewardship Moment – "Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." – Luke 12:51 Living a stewardship lifestyle means stepping out of our comfort zone when needed. Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves, stay in the middle of the road. In today's world we are called to be informed and take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.

Our Sympathy to the family of Lois Ann Melland, including Val & Elaine Schanilec of our parish.
