St. Raymond's is operated under the direction of Fr. Prasad, current pastor at St. John Nepomucene in Pisek. The school serves grades K-10, about 850 children. Tuition is $250 a year per student. Help bring the gift of education to these children. Free Will Offering.

Jesus says, "The shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out... he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him." We know how animals can attach themselves to human beings. Pets will sometimes put themselves in harms way to protect their master. Sheep are known to be followers. If the owner spends a lot of time with them, they become like pets. The first part of the week I went to my brother's place with his family. Early Tuesday morning when I got up David, my brother, said he was not sure how long Maria, the seven year old, had been out in the garage with the little baby chicks. I went out there and asked her whose chickens were they? She giggled and said, "The family's," but by her mannerism she showed that they were becoming hers. She told her mom that they were "adorable." She held them in her hands "taming" them, making them her own. In the Gospel antiphon we hear, "I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep and mine know me." (John 10:14). We have to be able to tune our hearing to the voice of the Good Shepherd. For us, these days, it means taking quiet time with God. It means learning how to read the scriptures. We have to believe that God can truly speak to us through the scriptures. We pray to the Holy Spirit asking that God would speak to us, then we read it. But many times the first time through, we read just words. It takes more than one time trying to imagine what is going on or to envision Jesus talking. If he is by the sea of Galilee, can you smell the sea? If we are willing to stick with it we will find a message. We can hear the voice of the Good Shepherd. And if we have shared are struggles with God sometimes we can hear the voice of the Living God speak to particular things we are going through. "I know my sheep and mine know me." The most basic way to be able to know someone's voice is to try to listen to that person. Hopefully we are trying to listen to the Good Shepherd.

 Right to Life ***

A Philadelphia Daily News columnist writes that we can disagree about many aspects of the abortion debate, but we cannot “delude ourselves into believing that it takes more courage to destroy a growing fetus than it does to allow that child to be born. We cannot pretend that it is more selfless to use abortion as birth control than it is to give birth and then gift that child to loving, adoptive parents.” Christine Flowers, Philadelphia Daily News, 4/23/12 in NRL News Online 12/2/15.

Prayer – That those who counsel young women considering abortion, may always seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Unplanned Pregnancy – Call 701-284-6601.

Steubenville North Youth Conference – Rochester MN

- Students in grades 8-12. July 14-16 at the Mayo Civic Center. If interested in sending your child to a life changing, fun, energizing conference, please contact Kelly at 701-520-0486 (cell) 701-248-2481 (h) or email kellykas@live.com. It will be an experience they will never forget.

Stewardship Moment – “And Peter said to them, ‘Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ...’” Acts 2:38 The word “repent” means to turn from sin, to change our actions. When it comes to change, do we take responsibility for change or do we think that others have to change instead? Change that is permanent comes from within. We must take control and be disciplined. Remember, though, that we are not alone. Jesus is there to help lighten the load.
